

CHAPTER 16

DAMAGE DEPOSIT

- 1601 No person shall carry out any work as defined in the Building Act 2004, unless:
- (a) They have first obtained a Building Consent pursuant to the Building Act 2004; and
 - (b) Deposited such sum as the Council may require by resolution to cover the cost for repairing any damage caused to the street or footpath during the construction, demolition or removal of buildings, and clearing the site of rubble and building materials.
- 1602 The damage deposit will be refunded when the road, street, kerb, footpath and grass verge have been satisfactorily repaired, and the site has been cleared of rubble and building materials.
